

Apōpō
AO 101

AO 101 – Introduction to Te Ao Māori

Overview

AO 101 – Introduction to Te Ao Māori helps you understand how incorporating te ao Māori (the Māori worldview) into your asset management practices contributes to a more sustainable and equitable future for all New Zealanders.

By the end of the course, you will be able to:

1. Understand the rich history of Māori in Aotearoa prior to Te Tiriti o Waitangi (The Treaty of Waitangi)
2. Explain how the Articles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi (The Treaty of Waitangi) relate to infrastructure asset management
3. Understand the events after the signing of the Treaty that led to the Waitangi Tribunal and our bicultural constitutional identity
4. Describe the ways in which te ao Māori is intertwined with the practice of asset management in Aotearoa New Zealand.

On completion, learners are awarded a digital badge which can be saved and shared.

Who should attend

Those wanting to develop a richer understanding of asset management in Aotearoa New Zealand, better engage with Māori, and/or better consider Māori interests within asset management.

Typical attendees include

- Asset Managers
- Consultants
- Engineers
- Project managers
- Executives
- Auditors
- Planners
- Strategy staff

Learning material

- Text, images, video
- Activities and case studies
- Summative assessment

Outcomes

By completing this course you will understand how incorporating te ao Māori (the Māori worldview) into your asset management practices contributes to a more sustainable and equitable future for all New Zealanders.

Content

- Early Aotearoa
- Te Tiriti o Waitangi
- What Happened Next
- Asset Management in Aotearoa New Zealand

Prerequisites

An understanding of the content in AM 101 – Introduction to Asset Management.